Description:

This lavish portfolio by best-selling fantasy artist Boris Vallejo, published for the first time in book form in the Fall of 1999, now comes to us in trade paper. Vallejos style is infinitely flexible and his choice of subjects encompasses scenes from Greek mythology, prehistoric creatures and serene ocean life. Stunning winged women, muscled men fighting ferocious beasts and strange alien worlds are among the many fantastic visions Vallejo creates for us. This collection includes a selection of Vallejos private work - sensuous full-color paintings that bring exotic women, sinewy men, and dream worlds to life. All told it includes over 120 full-color paintings, never before shown together. Renowned fantasy author Nigel Suckling offers insight into Vallejos art with fascinating and informative extended captions.

Dreams: The Art of Boris Vallejo comprises a collection of paintings, compiled by Nigel Suckling, featuring what constitutes the best portfolio of work by Boris Vallejo - the phenomenal artist best known for his creation of the ever popular Robert E. Howard character, Conan the Barbarian, that has spawned a cult phenomena in comicdom, comprising of some of the most exquisitely rendered studies in the human figure executed by the master of fantasy, showcasing his paintings at their best and proving why he is considered one of the foremost artists in the field. In this portfolio, which features work from the nineties, you will find some of the most gorgeous women ever rendered in paint. Highly recommended.
